JOSÉ MUCAVELÉ & ADAMA KEITA

Two musicians, two training courses, separated by three decades of musical practice. José Mucavélé has introduced traditional elements into his own music, mixing them with urban genres to create his unique acoustic style that has influenced many other popular music artists. José Mucavélé is a legend of Mozambican music. He will make a musical creation with the young prodigy of the Kora from Mali, Adama Keita.

Adama started to perform the kora at the age 4 years old. At 21, he belongs to the young generation of musicians of Bamako attracted by the modern music but he remains much attached to the traditional music. He works on all styles and excels in arrangements.

SAINTRICK & THE KÔRÈ ORCHESTRA

Singer Guitarist, songwriter, performer and arranger, Saintrick discovered music in the early 80's in Dakar, Senegal, where he grew up to the age of 15. A fan of Ismael Lô, his first love was the harmonica. Passing from the flute to the accordion, he discovered the guitar on his return to Congo in 1983 and until then turns it into his instrument of predilection. Saintrick carefully performs music, choreography and writes texts to create his show and music, a true symbiosis of Senegalese and Congolese rhythms. He will make an exchange of musical rhythmic rich in colors with the young artists of the Kôrè orchestra of Ségou.

• « LA LUMIÈRE » (THE LIGHT) BY ACTE SEPT

After fierce passing of arms they agreed on the agreement, and they all decide to embark...»

• « INCHALLAH » BY BLONBA...

L'univers du Tartuffe de Molière, The universe of Molière's Tartuffe, adapted thousands of times around the world, is brought to Bamako today. The authors of the adaptation make us penetrate into a naive and peaceful family, suddenly disturbed and disunited by the mere presence of a hypocritical and false devout Imam. Ladj is in spiritual retreat in the family home. He was able to seize the spirit of the mother, Tantie Ami and his daughter, the Member of Parliament Fifi. However, Ladj did not enjoy the same favor with the house-keeper Krémant, a Christian bwa, witnessing all his «little games» and scandalized by the grip he took on her boss.

• “MARGUERITES DO NOT GROW IN THE DESERT”
BY COMPAGNIE CÔTÉ-COURT
A COLLECTION OF NEWS OF BIRAMA KONARÉ

In the middle of the audience, four women tell stories of which they were victims or witnesses. They are stories of women in a society that makes them second-class citizens when they constitute half of them, a society that often oppresses them even in the secrecy of families and the intimacy of couples.

These are not always very cheerful stories, on the contrary, but all the women whose stories they tell and they have the love of life pegged to the body. Sometimes they tell, sometimes they play the different roles of the story they are telling, improvise, caricature men, laugh, sing and dance in spite of their misery or the oppression of which they are victims. The elder, the voice of tradition, preaches patience and resignation. The younger is revolted. The others hesitate between the two. The public is taken to witness: would things begin to change?

• "FROM LOVE TO THE GRAVEYARD" BY TROUPE ANWJIGI ART (ASSOCIATION FOR THEATER RESEARCH)

From Love to the Graveyard is a story of a man and a woman who finds themselves in the cemetery to dig their own grave in order to bury their lassitude. The difficulty of human relationships gives rise to blows of dots, blood flowing, like those cravings for smoking and drinking of both bodies. Finally silence and sympathy; fear and confession create a horizon of love and hope between the man and the woman. It is a play in a single picture, which tells the burning themes of the developing countries of Africa. It describes a world where money is more important than human beings, where the poor find it difficult to find his way, where capitalism kills the social.

• "LAMENTATIONS @ 12 "
BY ZIMBABWEAN DIRECTOR DAVES GUZHA

Rare and unique in its presentation and yet unequivocal in its mirroring of the moral decrepitude of man. "Lamentations @ 12" is a story of the stolen age of innocence. It encapsulates through a deliberate trajectory of historical and societal "norms" the lack of growth and change in attitude in various times in the human evolution ...or lack of it.
